

ROTARY'S ONLINE TOOLS Resource: What is it? Who adds or updates content? (e-mail address)

My Rotary Rotary.org

Rotary.org is the public face of Rotary, designed to inform the public. My Rotary (rotary.org/myrotary) has more detailed information for Rotarians and the family of Rotary. Users don't need to sign in to access some of the content. But with a My Rotary account, you can view and access information tailored to your Rotary role. RI staff adds/updates website@rotary.org

Profile and Connections

Rotarians and Rotaractors can manage and personalize their My Rotary profiles, and connect and message each other directly, without exposing personal email. Rotarians and Rotaractors social@rotary.org

Discussion Groups

Rotary discussion groups offer a place for Rotarians, Rotaractors, Rotary Peace Fellows, and alumni to share their experiences and ideas with members of the Rotary family from around the world. All discussion groups can be found in My Rotary (must be signed in to access). Join an existing group or start a new one based on your interests. Rotarians, Rotaractors, and program alumni social@rotary.org

Rotary Ideas

Rotary Ideas allows Rotary or Rotaract clubs to seek resources for their service projects, such as partners, volunteers, or material and direct financial contributions through PayPal. Project listings can be posted on club or district websites, and the site is open to the public. Leaders are also encouraged to use the site to find projects to partner on and to make other contributions to projects happening in the Rotary community. Rotary club leaders and Rotaract club presidents social@rotary.org

Rotary Showcase

Rotary Showcase allows Rotarians and Rotaractors to share successful project stories, photos, and video with one another and the public. It also allows them to identify partners and report the project's contribution to Rotary's global impact. Data can be synchronized with Rotary Club Central. Rotarians and Rotaractors social@rotary.org

Rotary Club Central

Rotary Club Central allows club leaders to enter and update membership, service, and Foundation giving goals, which district leaders can view and edit. Leaders have access for the years before, during, and after their term. All Rotarians can view their club's goals. Service projects can be imported from the Grant Center and Rotary Showcase. ### Events

Rotarians and Rotaractors can register for the Rotary Convention and learn about other upcoming events. RI staff adds/updates website@rotary.org

Brand Center Rotarians can customize and download materials that use the new Rotary voice and visual identity guidelines. RI staff adds/updates graphics@rotary.org

Grant Center The Grant Center is for district qualification and applying for district and global grants. Rotarians applying for grants grants@rotary.org

Learning Center The Learning Center provides e-learning materials to help Rotarians and others learn new skills, prepare for leadership roles and use Rotary tools to accomplish their goals. RI staff learn@rotary.org
